Important Information Related to GFR 2017

Rule 167 of GFR 2017

Electronic Reverse Auction

- Electronic Reverse Auction means an online real-time purchasing technique utilised by the procuring entity to select the successful bid, which involves presentation by bidders of successively more favourable bids during a scheduled period of time and automatic evaluation of bids.
- A procuring entity may choose to procure a subject matter of procurement by the electronic reverse auction method, if:
 - It is feasible for the procuring entity to formulate a detailed description of the subject matter of the procurement.
 - There is a competitive market of bidders anticipated to be qualified to participate in the electronic reverse auction, so that effective competition is ensured.

- The criteria to be used by the procuring entity in determining the successful bid are quantifiable and can be expressed in monetary terms.
- The procedure for electronic reverse auction shall include the following, namely:
 - The procuring entity shall solicit bids through an invitation to the electronic reverse auction to be published or communicated in accordance with the provisions similar to e-procurement.
 - The invitation shall, in addition to the information as specified in e-procurement, include details relating to access to and registration for the auction, opening and closing of the auction and Norms for conduct of the auction.
